We the volunteers of NSS UNIT-1 conducted this event with the guidance of our principal Dr.A.B.Koteswara Rao sir, Associative director C.V.Nageswara Rao sir, NSS unit-1 program officer Y.C.V.Kondiah sir and the Dean of Student Affairs Dr.P.Krishna Subba Rao sir.

All our volunteers assembled by 9:30 a.m. at our college premises and reached the school by 10:00 a.m. as all the permissions were taken before the day of the event we started to arrange the posters made by our volunteers in the art gallery for display as a part of our art exhibition.

As it is a girl's school, all the secondary school students were assembled and some of our volunteers gave them brief about fundamental rights, child rights, and especially girl rights.

They were explained to uphold their rights and not to misuse them. We also explained to them about rights like the Right to equality, the Right against female foeticide, the Right to freedom of expression, etc...

Meanwhile, the students of intermediate were taken to our art gallery. All our volunteers explained the hidden meaning of their posters to the students and mainly focused on the rights that are meant for girls.

Later one of the faculty members spoke a few lines about Human rights day and encouraged us to do such kind of events as much as possible and enlighten society.

The art exhibition went on till 12:30 p.m. Almost students from all the classes from the 5th to intermediate second year, everyone visited the art exhibition and unhesitantly asked and clarified their doubts from our volunteers.

All our volunteers participated in the event very actively and made the art exhibition and child rights awareness program on the occasion of Human rights day effective.

Finally, the art exhibition event was a grand success with a huge number of girl children who came to visit the arts on human rights.
